

ULYSSIS LaTeX Workshop

Simon Maenaut

November 2022

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons “Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International” license.

Contents

1	Introduction	3
1.1	First Subsection	3
1.2	Formatting	3
2	Lists	3
2.1	Simple lists	3
2.2	Numbered lists	4
2.3	List with descriptions	4
2.4	Nested lists	4
3	Tables	5
3.1	Simple Tables	5
3.2	Aligned tables	5
4	Figures	5

Abstract

An abstract provides a short overview of an article.

1 Introduction

An introduction is the first part of a text, where in the purpose of a text is described.

1.1 First Subsection

Sometimes it is an article requires structure.

We can start a new line using a double backwards-slash.

Alternatively we can start a new paragraph after a blank line.

1.2 Formatting

We can write text in bold, italics or underline the text. We can also combine the different formatting possibilities to give this effect.

Avoid using too complicated structures.

2 Lists

2.1 Simple lists

A short list about what you can print at Copy De Raaf.

- Posters
- Master's Thesis
- Christmas or New Year Cards

2.2 Numbered lists

A top three of the different programmes present.

1. Engineers
2. Statisticians
3. Computer Scientists

2.3 List with descriptions

Finally we can create a list of descriptions.

LaTeX a document mark-up language

Guardsquare a mobile applications security company

Copy De Raaf a precise and friendly print-shop in Leuven

2.4 Nested lists

1. First item
 - (a) First sub-item of one
 - (b) Second sub-item of one
2. Second item
 - First sub-item of two
 - Second sub-item of two
3. Third item

3 Tables

3.1 Simple Tables

First cell	Second cell	Third cell
1	2	3
A	B	C

to generate a simple table automatically.

3.2 Aligned tables

Top left	Top right
Bottom left	Bottom right

4 Figures

Figure 1: Guardsquare is a sponsor of this workshop.

We refer to figure 1 above.